

Thou Art Worthy

Thou art worthy
Of the glory Lord
And the honor
As I lay myself before your thrown, I worship you and you alone
For you created the stars and the seas
Lord, in all your majesty
Forever thou art worthy
Thou art worthy
Of the glory
And the honor
As I lay myself before your thrown
I worship you and you alone
For you created the stars and the seas
Lord, in all your majesty
Forever you are worthy
Thou art worthy
Of the glory
And the honor
As I lay myself before your thrown, I worship you and you alone
For you created the stars and the seas
Lord, in all your majesty
Forever you are worthy
Lord, in all your majesty
Forever you are worthy
